City Council Pathway

Title: City Council Pathway

Purpose: Help council members and legislative staff navigate governance, policy, planning, records, participation, and oversight materials.

Relationship to Universal Core: Universal Core provides modular reference material, not council rules, legal advice, or a substitute for charter and ordinance requirements.

Intended audience: City council members, legislative aides, clerks, committee staff, and public-participation personnel.

WHY THIS PATHWAY MAY BE RELEVANT

Councils connect representation, deliberation, legislation, oversight, budgeting, public records, and community participation.

Starting documents:

- CS-002 — Civic Station Standard
- CSF-0005 — Understanding Civic Systems
- CSA-009 — Governance and Change Control Framework
- CSA-3191 — Civic Leadership Governance Framework
- CSA-3192 — Civic Leadership Planning Framework
- CSA-2310 — Policy Management Architecture Framework
- CSA-2300 — Records Management Architecture Framework

Recommended next areas:

- Meeting and deliberative processes
- Public input and stakeholder engagement
- Policy implementation and review
- Budget and resource oversight
- Service and infrastructure performance

Related pathways:

Universal Information Governance Records Management Framework

CSA-111 — Universal Information Governance Records Management Framework Version: Draft 0.1 Series: Civic Station Architecture Status: Architecture Planning Document

1. PURPOSE

This framework establishes a standardized approach for creating, classifying, retaining, protecting, retrieving, archiving, and disposing of governance records throughout their lifecycle while preserving authenticity, integrity, and accountability.

2. OBJECTIVES

- Preserve official records.
- Support transparency and accountability.
- Ensure appropriate retention.
- Protect sensitive records.
- Enable efficient retrieval.
- Align records management with the Universal Core architecture.

3. RECORDS MANAGEMENT PRINCIPLES

Records management shall be:

- Authentic
- Reliable
- Complete

- Secure
- Traceable
- Governed

4. RECORDS MANAGEMENT MODEL

Each record should include:

- Record identifier
- Classification
- Record owner
- Creation date
- Retention schedule
- Security classification
- Version history
- Storage location
- Disposition status
- Audit history

5. RECORDS LIFECYCLE

Records management includes:

- Creation
- Classification
- Storage
- Protection
- Access
- Retention
- Archiving
- Lawful disposition

6. RECORDS CONTROLS

Organizations may implement:

- Records repositories
- Retention schedules
- Classification standards
- Access controls
- Audit logging
- Automated disposition workflows

7. PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Organizations should monitor:

- Record retrieval time
- Retention compliance
- Classification accuracy
- Unauthorized access events
- Archive completeness
- Disposition accuracy

8. GOVERNANCE

Leadership shall approve records policies, assign records custodians, oversee retention schedules, allocate preservation resources, review compliance, and ensure records remain trustworthy and accessible.

9. CONTINUAL IMPROVEMENT

Records management should improve through audits, regulatory updates, technology modernization, user feedback, lifecycle reviews, and lessons learned.

10. SUCCESS CRITERION

Every Civic Station deployment should maintain a governed information governance records management framework that preserves institutional records, supports accountability, and strengthens the Universal Core through consistent lifecycle management.

Universal Information Governance Information Governance Decision Support Framework

CSA-195 — Universal Information Governance Information Governance Decision Support Framework Version: Draft 0.1 Series: Civic Station Architecture Status: Architecture Planning Document

1. PURPOSE

This framework establishes a standardized approach for supporting Information Governance decisions throughout the Civic Station ecosystem. Information Governance Decision Support ensures that leaders, administrators, and participants have access to reliable information, analysis methods, and governance knowledge needed to make effective decisions.

2. OBJECTIVES

- Establish consistent decision support practices.

8. GOVERNANCE

Leadership shall establish participation standards, define contribution opportunities, oversee participation processes, evaluate input, allocate resources, and ensure consistent Information Governance Participation Management throughout the enterprise.

9. CONTINUAL IMPROVEMENT

Participation practices should evolve through participant feedback, engagement reviews, performance analysis, operational experience, governance assessments, technology improvements, and lessons learned.

10. SUCCESS CRITERION

Every Civic Station deployment should maintain a governed Information Governance Participation Management framework that enables meaningful contribution, supports shared decision-making, and strengthens collaboration, accountability, transparency, and trust throughout the Universal Core architecture.

Operational Enterprise Records Governance Systems Handbook

OM-1324 Operational Enterprise Records Governance Systems Handbook

Purpose

The Operational Enterprise Records Governance Systems Handbook establishes a framework for governing the creation, classification, retention, protection, retrieval, archival, and lawful disposition of enterprise records. Records governance ensures that Civic Stations maintain trustworthy records that support accountability, operational continuity, historical preservation, compliance, and informed decision-making throughout the organization.

Objectives

- Govern enterprise records throughout their complete lifecycle. •

Establish consistent records management standards. • Protect the authenticity and integrity of official records. • Improve retrieval and accountability for organizational information. • Support mission success through disciplined records stewardship.

Records Governance Principles

1. Official records are enterprise assets requiring stewardship.

2. Records should be authentic, reliable, complete, and accessible.

3. Classification and retention should follow documented policies.

4. Sensitive records should receive appropriate protection.

5. Disposition should be authorized, documented, and auditable.

6. Continuous review strengthens organizational accountability.

Records Governance Lifecycle

1. Create or receive official records.

2. Classify records according to governance policies.

3. Apply retention schedules and security controls.

4. Maintain accessibility during active use.

5. Archive records with long-term value.

6. Authorize lawful disposition of expired records.

7. Review governance effectiveness and capture lessons learned.

8. Repeat the records governance cycle.

Records Governance Focus Areas

Examples include: • Administrative records • Financial records • Personnel records • Operational records • Legal and compliance records • Historical archives • Retention schedules • Audit documentation

Management Practices

Organizations should: • Maintain documented records governance policies.

- Assign custodians for critical record collections. • Preserve audit

trails and disposition authorizations. • Conduct recurring records governance reviews. • Coordinate records management across Civic Stations. • Align records governance with enterprise strategy.

Measures of Success

Effective records governance may be reflected by: • Improved record accessibility • Stronger compliance and accountability • Reduced records management risk • Better preservation of organizational history • More efficient audits and investigations • Sustained mission fulfillment

Relationship to Other Manuals

OM-1324 builds upon OM-1323 Operational Enterprise Digital Knowledge Preservation Systems by establishing governance for both digital and physical enterprise records throughout their lifecycle. It establishes the foundation for future manuals covering Enterprise Digital Archives, Enterprise Archival Operations, and the continued evolution of Civic Stations.

- Civic Station Foundation Historical Archive Policy

CSF-0037 Civic Station Foundation Historical Archive Policy

Purpose

The Civic Station Foundation Historical Archive Policy establishes the principles for preserving historical editions, development records, and previous versions of Civic Station Universal Core materials.

The purpose of historical preservation is to maintain a record of how the library develops over time and ensure that future users can understand the origin, growth, and evolution of civic knowledge resources.

Historical Archive Philosophy

A knowledge library is not only a collection of current documents.

It is also a record of learning, improvement, and development.

Historical archives preserve:

- Previous editions • Development milestones • Organizational changes •

Publication history • Framework evolution

Why Historical Archives Matter

Preserving historical materials supports:

Transparency

Users can understand how documents changed over time.

Learning

Future maintainers can learn from previous development.

Continuity

The identity and purpose of resources remain connected.

Reference

Older editions may provide useful historical context.

Historical Version Preservation

When possible, archives should preserve:

- Original editions • Revised editions • Archived editions • Release

information • Change summaries

Previous versions should not be removed simply because newer editions exist.

Relationship Between Current and Historical Editions

Current editions provide the active reference.

Historical editions provide context and continuity.

Both serve important purposes.

Archive Organization

Historical archives should maintain:

Document Identity

Including:

- Document ID • Title • Series • Version

Publication Information

Including:

- Release information • Revision history • Archive date

Relationship Information

Including:

- Related documents • Framework connections • Index references

Preserving Development History

The archive may preserve records of:

- Major milestones • Framework creation • Library expansion •

Organizational improvements

These records help future users understand the development journey.

Historical Materials and Public Access

Historical documents may be made available for:

- Research • Education • Reference • Preservation

Access to historical materials supports understanding of how civic knowledge systems develop.

Archive Stewardship

Maintainers preserving historical records should:

- Protect original materials • Maintain accurate identification •

Preserve context • Avoid unnecessary deletion

Historical records are part of the collective knowledge resource.

Future Historical Archive Development

As the Universal Core grows, historical preservation may include:

- Digital archive systems • Version databases • Timeline resources •

Development records • Publication histories

The goal is to ensure that future generations can understand both the current library and the path that created it.
